Flowchart for adjustment of Investment Registration Certificate (IRC)

- A written proposal for adjustment of CIR;
- Report on investment project implementation until the time of adjustment proposal;
- III. Decision on investment project adjustment by investor;
- IV. The written confirmation for holder's status, legal status of investors;
- The written proposal for investment projects;
- VI. A copy of the documents: Financial report of the last two years; the parent company's written engagement for financial support, financial institutions; notes and guaranty for investor's financial capacity;
- VII. Proposing land use needs; submit a copy of location renting agreement or other written confirmations for investor's the right to use location for implementation of investment projects;
- VIII. Explanatory document for use of technologies for projects on the list of restricted-totransfer technologies; [Article 33, NĐ 118].

MU of IZ, PZ, high-tech zone, EZ for investment project in IZ, PZ, high-tech zone, EZ

Department of Planning and Investment ("DoPI") for investment projects out of IZ, PZ, hightech zone, EZ area

DoPI which investors place their head office for investment projects in field of many provinces; investment projects are implemented in and out of IZ, PZ, high-tech zone, EZ

- 1. Within 10 working days as from the date when all documents are received, IRA will adjust CIR; in case the documents are refused, it is required to send a written notice stating reasons.
- 2. For the projects subject to decision of investment policy, if adjustments are implement regarding to target, investment location, main technologies, increase or decrease of investment capital over 10% of total investment capital, changing investors or investment conditions for investors, IRA will implement procedures to decide investment policy before adjustments are implemented;
- 3. If the adjusted contents of CIR cause the case that the project must be subject to a decision of investment policy, IRA will perform procedures to decide investment policy before adjustments are implemented.